The International Latino Film Festival in Downtown Redwood City is creating a new tradition of culture and art in our community. The film festival showcases the best in new international Latino cinema, encourages emerging film talent, and pays tribute to celebrated Latino actors, directors, and producers – and Redwood City is pleased to host three great nights and the Gala Opening Reception right in the heart of our Downtown.

The entire community is invited to join other film aficionados and festival novices for the Gala Opening Reception for Latino delicacies, wonderful beverages, and live entertainment as participants gear up for a fabulous weekend of award-winning Latino cinema. Movie descriptions, tickets, and more information is available online at www.redwoodcity.org/latinofilmfestival.

The 12th International Latino Film Festival (www.latinofilmfestival.org) is exhibiting 50 films at 15 venues from November 7th through November 23rd. The entire Festival spans seven Bay Area cities - San Francisco, Redwood City, San Jose, San Rafael, Berkeley, San Mateo, and San Bruno.
